

IMPORTANT HEALTH INFORMATION – PLEASE READ BEFORE ENTERING

The Government and Public Health England's advice is clear – Children and adults should stay at home whenever possible. You should only leave your child at school if you are a critical worker AND there is absolutely no other option available to you to keep your child at home during your working hours. Before leaving your child at school today please follow this flow diagram.

